

Jackson County Sentinel

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY AT GAINESBORO, TENN.

E. W. TARDY, Editor
G. B. GAILBEATH, Business Manager

Subscription price, $1.00 per year.

Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice in Gainesboro, Tenn., under Acts of Congress, 1879

THURSDAY, OCT. 25, 1917

We are authorized to announce the name of Harry Camp, of Sparta, Tenn., as a candidate for Chancellor of this the Fourth Chancery Division of Tennessee, subject to the action of the democratic party in the primary election to be held Dec. 1, 1917.

We are authorized to announce the name of W. R. Officer, of Livingston, Tenn., as a candidate for Chancellor of this the Fourth Chancery Division of Tennessee, subject to the action of the democratic party in the primary election to be held Dec. 1, 1917.

We are authorized to announce the name of L. A. Ligan, of Carthage, Tenn., as a candidate for Judge of this the Fifth Judicial Circuit of Tennessee, subject to the action of the democratic party in primary election to be held December 1, 1917.

SNODGRASS—We are authorized to announce C. E. Snodgrass, of Crossville, as a candidate for Judge of this the Fifth Judicial Circuit of Tennessee, subject to the action of the democratic party in primary election to be held December 1, 1917.

In a liberty bond your money works for the Nation—yet you can get it back when its job is done, plus 4 per cent.

The Imperial German Government does not want you to buy a Liberty Bond. The U. S. of America does want you to buy one. Which will you please.

How much do you love your country—measured by Liberty Bonds?

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Draper, of Flynn's Lick, visited relatives here Sunday.

Leon Reeves has taken charge of the office work of Draper & McCawley garage.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dudley, of Free State, were shopping in Gainesboro this week.

Ridley Draper has accepted a position as assistant book-keeper in the bank of Gainesboro.

Hon. C. E. Snodgrass, of Crossville, passed thru Gainesboro Monday en route to Celina, where he is holding court.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hargis, of near Granville, were here Sunday and Monday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Pate.

B. L. Quarles, P. J. Anderson and W. F. Sadler went to Nashville Tuesday to hear McAdoo speak in the interest of the second Liberty Loan.

W. W. Rogers, of Nashville, was in Gainesboro Saturday. He will move to Bagdad soon, where he recently purchased the stock of goods of J. M. Dean.

LQST—One medium size bill-book, dark tan color, containing several subpoenas, two notes and some other papers, and one small picture. Lost during the latter part of Chancery court week. Finder please return to W. C. Copeland, or Sentinel office.

H. H. Davidson, of Bloomington R 1, was here Monday.

Bert Pruett, of Flynn's Lick, was a caller at the office Tuesday.

Rev. Van Smith, of Buffalo Valley, was in Gainesboro Thursday.

Mrs. R. M. Maxwell, of Roaring river, was in town first of the week.

Rev. Hinson and son, of Lebanon, were here Saturday on legal business.

V. E. Bockman attorney of the Cookeville bar, attended Chancery court here.

The first snow of the season fell here Tuesday morning, lasting about 20 minutes.

W. R. Officer, of Livingston, was here Saturday in the interest of his race for Chancellor.

Rev. S. E. Templeton and wife have returned from Baxter, where he has been holding a revival.

Tom Tinsley is very low with typhoid and pneumonia fever. A trained nurse from Nashville is with him.

Bradley McGinnis and J. H. Gardenhire, attorneys of Carthage, attended Chancery court Saturday.

Miss Joan Donovan has returned to her home at Humboldt, Tenn., after an extended visit with Miss Minnie Draper.

Chancery Court adjourned Saturday, after a week's session. A large number of cases were disposed of, and several continued.

After November 2nd, then comes the new postage law, which requires 3 cents on letters and 2 cents on postal cards instead of a one cent.

H. G. Young, Zone Oil man, spent a few days with home folks first of the week. He was accompanied by his brother, Bert Young, of Boonville, Ind.

Sam Thompson, well known mule buyer of Lebanon, bought 17 head of mules here last Monday. He will be back here on Tuesday, Oct. 30. See ad in this issue.

Mrs. J. R. Darwin, Misses Blanche Darwin and Ida Whitaker and W. M. Darwin returned Monday from a visit to relatives at Hartsville, Castalian Springs, Nashville and Willette.

Frank Holland, of Woodburn, Ky., was the guest of his brother, A. M. Holland Sunday and Monday. He returned home Tuesday accompanied by his sister, Miss Ona Holland and brother, A. M. Holland.

"Aunt" Malinda Darwin Walker, col., age 70 years, died Wednesday night at 11 o'clock of dropsy. She was one of the oldest negroes in the county. She had been in feeble for several weeks. Funeral service was held Thursday evening.

J. C. Reeves and family will leave the last of this week for Detroit, Mich., where he expects to fight the battles of life for a while. Don't expect to see Jim back until fishing season opens anyway. He requested this paper to tell Mark McDearman, who is in Detroit, to be sure and meet him at the depot with a bucket of good live minnows and a small can of good sized red worms.

VITAZONE—To take, or rub on, will do the work. Try a bottle the next time you come to town. On sale at L. B. Anderson's drug store.

HAYDENBURG R. 2.

Bill Mosley and family visited D. M. Huffines and family Sunday.

Charley Carter and family were visiting at Haydenburg Sunday.

A large crowd attended church at Pleasant Grove Sunday. Meeting was protracted.

There seem to be quite a number engaged in chestnut hunting Sunday.

Miss Ora Smith, of Free State, is visiting relatives at Haydenburg.

Clem Proctor and family visited Wm Dycus and family Sunday.

Frances Cassetty is visiting his father at Haydenburg.

Bluef McCawley, who has been in feeble health for some time, is not any better.

George Hix, is confined to his bed with typhoid fever.

Oliver West and wife are visiting his father at Haydenburg.

Jerry Huffines and family, of Macon county, were visiting relatives here.

Health is improving. Lagrippe is losing its hold, and we trust it will select some deserted place and put up for winter quarters.

Author Long, who has been sick for quite a while with typhoid fever, is rapidly recovering. Dr. Cornwell has had his case in charge.

There seems to be a letting up of fighting on most all fronts now. The most noticeable moves being made on the eastern front.

Kaiser Bill surely is trying to force his way through to old Nick. He needn't be in such a hurry, as Nick is put up in cold storage.

STONE.

B. S. Minor passed thru here last Tuesday.

Miss Clarisa Crowder, of Brimstone, is visiting her grandfather R. B. Crowder.

Will Hall, of Celina, was here Saturday calling on our merchants.

J. B. Birdwell and daughter, Miss Bonnie, of Red Boiling Springs, visited Mrs. Aulty Shoulders and family last week.

Mrs. Aulty Shoulders was in Whitleyville one day recently.

Jona Dudley visited in Red Springs Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sib Rich, of Cookeville, visited their daughter, Mrs. Barlow McCain Saturday.

Several of our farmers were in Gainesboro Monday with their mules to sell.

Marion Harris, of Gainesboro Route 2, preached here last Sunday.

Louis Botts, of Whitleyville, visited at Mrs. Shoulder's last Sunday.

Bob Meadows, who is pilot on the Robt. Rhea, spent the weekend with his family.

Martin Myers was in Gainesboro Saturday and Monday having some dental work done.

NEW HURRICANE.

Addie, Theo, Settie and Grady cason, Myrtle and Lassie Spivy went chestnut hunting Saturday.

School was dismissed at New Hurricane Friday for 2 weeks on account of pea picking.

Misses Ethel Miss and Eliza Bybee spent Saturday night at J. H. Jackson's.

A large number of young folks enjoyed themselves at Otto Prieses Saturday night.

David Hall and Perry Crowder have returned from Nashville, where they were witnesses in the Tyler case.

Dr. Green of Hilham was here last week doing dental work.

Henry Hall and wife visited

Suits and Coats Prices Range From $2.50 to $40

We assert with emphasis, that we have in stock the prettiest line of Coats and Suits that was ever shown in GAINESBORO. When you see the snappy models, the luxurious wool cloths, you are sure to conclude that old "Hi Cost" has met his Waterloo. We ask you to examine these Suits and Coats from every angle of tailoring, fabrics, lining and style—100 point every where. These are sure to please you, and we are anxious for you to give us a call, and see the Coats and Suits.

If quality, style and price is a combination you like, then these Coats and Suits are what you are looking for. We again invite you to come and see us at once.

McDEARMAN—STAFFORD COMPANY

A WORLD WAR

It started in the kitchen. A statesman ate impure food—gave him indigestion—quarled with another statesman—the war was on. Avoid the horrors of indigestion by buying pure Groceries and eats from the pure food store. That's the kind you buy when you trade at Luke Dennis'. I keep the purest and best that money can buy, and will not sell any inferior, impure or defective groceries if I know it. I am fishing for trade, with service and fair dealing for bait. Satisfaction in every transaction guaranteed. I want you to be my customer, and I assure you, you will never regret it. Come to see me when in town. Always glad to see you, whether you buy are not. Fresh bread, pure and wholesome.

LUKE DENNIS.

GAINESBORO, TENN.

Jasper Smith Sunday.

Several young folks enjoyed a "cat paddle" game of ball at Henry Bailey's Sunday.

POLEY CATHARTIC TABLETS
Lancet Brand—Sole Agent—Gainesboro, Tenn.

FOR SALE—One second-hand Ford touring car, 1917 model, been run only a short time and well cared for, good condition. Don't need it. Will sell cheap for cash. Call at the Sentinel office, Gainesboro, Tenn.

A Genuine Pleasure

It's a pleasure to sell a medicine that brings people back to tell about the good it does them.

I have sold more TANLAC and heard it praised more than any other medicine in the same length of time.

If you are suffering from stomach trouble, indigestion, or any of the other common ills, get a bottle of TANLAC and experience its wonderful curative powers.

L. B. Anderson, Exclusive Agent
Gainesboro, Tenn.

MULES

WANTED

WE WILL BE IN GAINESBORO,

Tuesday, October 30

TO BUY MULES ANY AGE, SIZE AND GRADE. WE WANT EVERY MULE YOU HAVE FOR SALE THIS TRIP. DON'T FAIL TO BRING THEM. HIGHEST MARKET PRICE PAID.

Grissim, Thompson & Taylor